IMAGINATION

Plays the leading part when it comes to buying clothes of a tailor. You imagine they are better, because you are paying more. Now, we do not make to order, but we make to fit; and if you buy here, we make you judge and jury; besides, if the clothes do not wear, if they do not give satisfaction in every way, we give your money back.

The most important point in a suit of clothes—after the quality of the cloth is considered—is the care and skill displayed in making it. On that point alone is based the charges of the highest-priced tailors.

In our New Spring Suits you will find skill, care and taste displayed to an extent far beyond the best previous standards.

$10.00 for a Suit of Excellent Serviceable Quality.
$15.00 for Better Ones.
$22.50 for Elegant Suits—of Quality Seldom Exceeded.

COMPANY C

Will be Linsly Battalion's Color Bearers for a Year.

WINS THE COMPETITIVE DRILL.

Contest Was Pretty Close, Captain Embler's "Men" Distancing Company D by Only Two Points—Miss Helen Smith Presented the Laurels to Winning Company—Winners Were Later Banqueted

Company C was the winner in the annual competitive drill of the companies composing the Linsly Institute battalion of cadets, which took place yesterday afternoon on Fourteenth street, between Chapline and Eoff streets, in the presence of a large throng of people. Captain Robert Embler, a little bunch of grit and intellect, and one of the most popular boys in the school, banqueting his company afterward at Ziegler's, and he and his company were cheered by the other companies after the decision of the judges, who were Lieutenant C. E. Morris and Sergeant Charles G. Dobbins and T. Harvey Pollock, of the local National Guard company, was announced.

Not the least interesting part of the exercises was the flag presentation to the winning company by Miss Helen Smith, the pretty daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. O. Smith, of the Island. It was a small, blue flag, which was donated for this purpose by Lieutenant Brauner, U. S. N., now in the Philippines, and a former military instructor at the Linsly. It will be carried at the head of the winning company at the commencement next week and will remain in their possession so long as they are considered the best drilled in the battalion. Miss Smith spoke briefly and expressed the hope that the company would continue its efficiency.

The battalion first formed at the Linsly armory and moved off to the reviewing point in charge of Lieutenant B. C. Dent, U. S. N., the commandant, and Major Jacob H. Otto and Adjutant Lewis Stearns. After a dress parade the drilling competition began, and Company C won over Company D by only two points. The roster of the competing companies was as follows:

Company A.

Captain—Louis R. Killmeyer.
First Lieutenant—Lewis McClurg Stearns.
First Sergeant—Charles Deignan.
Privates—Harold Young, R. Shafer, A. Caldwell, C. Flaccus, W. Coits, A. Rhodes, C. Leap, L. Paul, J. Mowry, Frow Hall, D. McKee, A. Gehubert, W. Frazier.

Company B.

Captain—John Handman.
First Lieutenant—John Fair.
Second Sergeant—Arthur Huggs.
Privates—Irwin Boyd, George Bencke, Harvey Reppetto, George Israel, Henry Ahrens, Hülthner, Gasmler, William Orr, Wilson Grubb, Joseph Handman, George Brown, George Caldwell.

Company C.

Captain—Robert Embler.
First Lieutenant—Harry B. Thomas.
First Sergeant—Ed Wilhelm.

Second Sergeant—George Caldwell.
Privates—Ralph Hider, Homer Crago, George Kewner, Ellis Herbert, Fred Park, DuBois Baird, Ambrose Dalsell, John Mowry, Archie Otto, Elwood Fox.

Company D.

Captain—Charles Sonnenborn.
First Sergeant—Charles Wells.
Second Sergeant—Herbert Sonnenborn.
Privates—William Scheil, Charles Duvall, Irwin Boyd, Charles Edge, Harold Young, Clarence Luchs, George Hays, John Reed, Elwood Stone, Edward Schwinn, Shavell Gibbs, Ivan Fawcett.
The students were tested on the manual of arms, without the extended order. Judges Morris, Dobbins and Pollock awarded the points as follows: Company C, 45; Company D, 43; Company A, 49; Company B, 43.

Vaudeville at Wheeling Park.

Next week a fine company of vaudeville artists will appear in a week's engagement at Wheeling Park Casino. The company includes Falardo in an instrumental act; Caxon and Brooks in an operatic comic sketch; Cockley and Heusted, comedians; Patrice, the winsome and quaint comedienne, assisted by her own company in her latest comedy success, "A New Year's Dream"; Miss Burnham, who made a hit here last year, and De Fiere, the sleight of hand performer. Popular prices will prevail.

BOXES OF GOLD

Sent for Letters About Grape-Nuts. 650 boxes of gold and greenbacks will be sent to persons writing interesting and truthful letters about the good that has been done them by the use of Grape-Nuts food.

10 little boxes, each containing a $10 gold piece, will be sent the 10 writers of the most interesting letters.
25 boxes, each containing a $5 gold piece to the 25 next most interesting writers, and a $1 greenback will go to each of the 250 next best. A committee of three to make decision, and the prizes sent on July 3, 1900.

Write plain, sensible letters, giving detailed facts of ill health caused from improper food, and explain the improvement, the gain in strength, in weight, or in brain power after using Grape-Nuts food.

It is a profound fact that most ailments of humanity come from improper and non-nourishing food, such as white bread, hot biscuits, starchy and uncooked cereals, etc.

A change to perfectly cooked, predigested food like Grape-Nuts, scientifically made, and containing exactly the elements nature requires for building the delicate and wonderful cells of brain and body, will quickly change a half sick person to a well person. Food, good food, is nature's strongest weapon of defense.

Include in the letter the true names and addresses, carefully written, of 20 persons not very well, to whom we can write regarding the food cure by Grape-Nuts!

Almost everyone interested in pure food is willing to have his or her name appear in the papers for such help as they may offer the human race. A request, however, to omit names, will be respected. Try for one of the $20 prizes. Everyone has an equal show. Don't write poetry, but just honest and interesting facts about the good you have obtained from the pure food Grape-Nuts. If a man or woman has found a true way to get well and keep well, it should be a pleasure to stretch a helping hand to him or her. Write your name and address plainly on letter and mail promptly to the Postum Cereal Co., Ltd., Battle Creek, Mich. Prizes sent July 3.

POLITICS

That there will be a spirited contest for the Republican majority nomination next winter is now assured beyond doubt. Ex-Mayor John Randolph Butts and Councilman Ross T. Chew have been in the field for the nomination for some time, and on Wednesday morning the Intelligence first announced the candidacy of President James P. Maxwell, of the second branch of council—and now comes the first authentic announcement of the candidacy of Councilman William Baird, of the Island. This announcement of Mr. Baird's candidacy has been expected for some time, and is not in the nature of a surprise. The Intelligence will vouch for its authenticity, though it does not come direct from the candidate. Mr. Baird has served the seventh ward in the first branch of council several years, and is conceded to be one of the ablest members of the body. His service as chairman of the council committee on fire department has been notably excellent.

The Republican voters of the Island will be in a quandary at the Republican municipal primaries next winter on the majority nomination—for with two such men of ability and standing and training in the municipal service as Messrs. Maxwell and Baird, they will find it difficult to choose. Distinctly it is a case of "How happy I would be with either, were 'tother dear charmer away."

The advent of ex-Officer Joe McCausland as a candidate for the Republican nomination for chief of police, as stated in yesterday's Intelligence, has been received with considerable favor, and Messrs. Benett and Clemans will have to "look a leetle odd."

The Democrats of Belmont county are in a state of harmony akin to that of "Kilkenny cats." At their county convention at St. Clairsville Thursday the county committee met and organized. Through systematic plugging at R. C. Meyer, who was held up as the ghost of John R. McLean and anti-Bryan, he was defeated for re-election as chairman and D. H. Milligan, an acrobat on the money question, installed. Then the strategy, the tricks of the defeated element were turned upon their own organization. Some of them had gone home in disgust, the defeated chairman had taken to the woods to gather wild flowers. The surface looked calm and serene to the victor and they rested on their laurels with comfort and ease. But the committee had a subsequent meeting to decide a contest in some precinct, and after that a motion was made to elect R. B. Mitchell, of Bridgeport, chairman of the county executive committee and empower him to select his own counselors and advisory members, the solid river front voting for this and carrying it through with a burrah. One R. E. Crow, of Bellaire, was found in possession of the proxies of the committeemen who had left, and the Bridgeport and Martin's Perry contingent voted with him. Thus before the anti-McLean, the Whopper-up Bryan element realized where they were at, they found themselves tied up in a bar by McLean's adroit wire pullers. There never was such a snub of a county chairman in the history of any political party. The kid McLean himself simply served notice on the moss-backs that things are not to go their way. "The boodle will be handled by the river front kids 'allis' tames."

Col. W. W. Ball returned yesterday from Parkersburg, where he was the sole representative of the Brooke county Democracy. He had seven votes in the convention, and went down with colors flying for Tamm and Handlan.

The Democratic mass convention in Wellsburg to nominate a county ticket will be held this afternoon at 2 o'clock. It will be a tame affair, as there are no contests over the different offices to be filled. John M. Brown, for sheriff, and Pirman Barnes, for assessor, are the only candidates announced.

Marshall county Republicans held their primaries today, and from sheriff all down the line there will be hot fights waged for the nominations. The fight for sheriff will be one of the warmest that ever happened in the county, and Marshall has had some exciting battles for the head of the ticket.

Col. Dominick Morris returned last night from Weston, where he assisted with voice and vote in nominating Captain Dovenor. His voice was not given to unattractive effort, but it was used to good effect in the burrah, and the power of "Dom's" lungs is unquestioned. It is hinted that he will be a visible figure at the larger gathering in Philadelphia.

Following "Joe" McCausland's announcement in yesterday's Intelligence another Joseph unofficially stated that he would be a candidate for chief of police at the next Republican city primaries. Joseph Baro, who contested with Chief Clemans at the last primary, said that unless something unforeseen occurred, he would be a candidate again. Messrs. Clemans, Benett, McCausland and Baro will certainly raise the dust in the race for this office.

The Ohio County D. H. Taylor Club held a regular meeting at Armory hall last evening, called to order by President Pro Tem S. R. Graves. The club unanimously endorsed Hon. B. B. Dovenor, and appointed a committee to draft resolutions. Various picnic committees reported progress. The meeting night was changed from Friday to Wednesday.

THREE RECRUITS LEAVE

For the Marine Corps Barracks in Philadelphia—Lieutenant Basil, Encouraged With the Prospects Here.

Lieutenant O. H. Rask secured three recruits yesterday at the local recruiting office for the United States Marine Corps. These recruits were sent away yesterday afternoon to the League Island Navy Yard, at Philadelphia. They are, Ernest F. Dennis, New Martinsville, W. Va.; Emmett D. Gier, Steubenville, O.; and John D. Carson, Toronto, Ohio.

"They are three splendid specimens of American manhood," said Lieutenant Rask to an Intelligence reporter. "I am greatly pleased with my work here and in Pittsburgh. At the Pittsburgh office I enlisted forty-three men in one month, which is a good record."

"You know every one is talking of the marine corps now, on account of the excitement in China. There are now, according to reports, 400 marines in China or on the way. The service there will be splendid. It will show the other countries what the American marine is like in his war trappings."

"A great many men have called at the Wheeling office and inquired if they could enlist for Chinese service. That shows how patriotic our youth is. Tendering his services long before the government is in need of them."

"Of course these recruits cannot be sent to China at once. They must be drilled and instructed first. That is done at the marine barracks. Then they are sent wherever needed. If the Chinese trouble lasts any length of time some of these men may get over there."

"Corporal Boyer has some good men on the list that I expect to get next Thursday. I consider the prospects here very encouraging."
